

Introducing LGA Web Quoting!

Web Quoting is Legal & General America's new tool for all of your quoting and illustration needs. We kept everything you loved about Illustration Manager and made it better!

- Web based - no download or installation required - available anywhere with an internet connection.
- Enhanced security to protect customer and partner information.
- Mobile and tablet-friendly, responsive layout allows for quoting on the go and access to saved illustrations anytime, from anywhere.
- Clean new design makes the information you need more accessible.
- New term comparison table shows calculated premium or face values across term lengths and rate classes, creating easy upsell opportunities.
- Always up-to-date with Legal & General America's latest rates.
- Improved quote display makes it easy to keep track of your current calculated premium.
- New color illustrations.
- Streamlined contact management.
- More intuitive management of saved illustrations.

What's happening to Illustration Manager

Our legacy tool, Illustration Manager (IM), will still be available for a limited time but will be discontinued before the end of the year. When Illustration Manager is discontinued, you will still be able to quote previous rates with that tool but any new rates or products going forward will be exclusively on Web Quoting.

Where can I go play with this new toy?
